VERTIN

POSITION PROFILE:

Funeral Director Intern

BONNERUP FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICES
ALBERT LEA, MN

As a funeral director intern, you have the unique opportunity to work along side a team of funeral professionals to guide individuals and families through one of the most difficult experiences in their lives.

With the support and guidance of their supervisor, our funeral director interns quickly adapt to the needs of individual families by presenting personalized, meaningful, and creative ideas to help honor and celebrate each life lived. They exemplify the genuine compassion and dedication essential for providing exceptional service to those experiencing the loss of a loved one.

We also believe that a growth mindset is essential for reaching our collective goals as a progressive organization. In order to uphold our high standards of care, we offer access to excellent mentoring and professional development opportunities.

TO APPLY:

If you believe that funeral service is truly a calling and not merely a career, we'd love to hear from you! Please email your cover letter and complete resume to careers@vertin.com.

VERTIN HISTORY AND TODAY

From the first Vertin funeral conducted in 1904, providing professional, first-class funeral service has been our priority and creating meaningful experiences for families has been our passion. We have a long history of stability and financial security as a privately held funeral business. With locations spanning the Midwest, we are a diverse group of over 500 individuals inspired by a shared commitment to making a difference in people's lives.
